Dedication: Mrs. Elizabeth Evans

The faculty at Harpeth Hall is unique in that each member is active in areas other than academics. Each year the MILESTONES staff is faced with the difficult responsibility of choosing one person to whom it can dedicate the annual. However, this year one faculty member was special to MILESTONES as well as to the entire school. Since her arrival at Harpeth Hall, this teacher has taught French, and she continues today to instill in her students respect for France, its language, and its culture. Now, as head of the Language Department, she organizes the bi-annual Winterim trip to France, the Winterim French class, and Le Cercle Francais.

Her expertise is not limited to French; she has been involved in activities which range from serving on the dress code committee to organizing graduation processions. In 1982 she obtained charters for two new honor societies at Harpeth Hall. The reason for her desire to establish a chapter of La Société Honoraire de Français at Harpeth Hall is obvious: she is a French teacher. But she also sponsors Quill and Scroll, a national honor society for high school journalists. Her interest in this second honor society is somewhat less obvious. This faculty member had the dubious honor of guiding several MILESTONES staffs through Friday meetings, deadlines, and distribution days. Upon retiring from MILESTONES in 1983, she became a willing and helpful consultant.

Around Harpeth Hall this faculty member has a reputation for generosity and excellence. For her guidance, support, and friendly smile, the 1984 MILESTONES staff fondly dedicates MILESTONES 1984 to Mrs. Elizabeth Evans.

Dedication

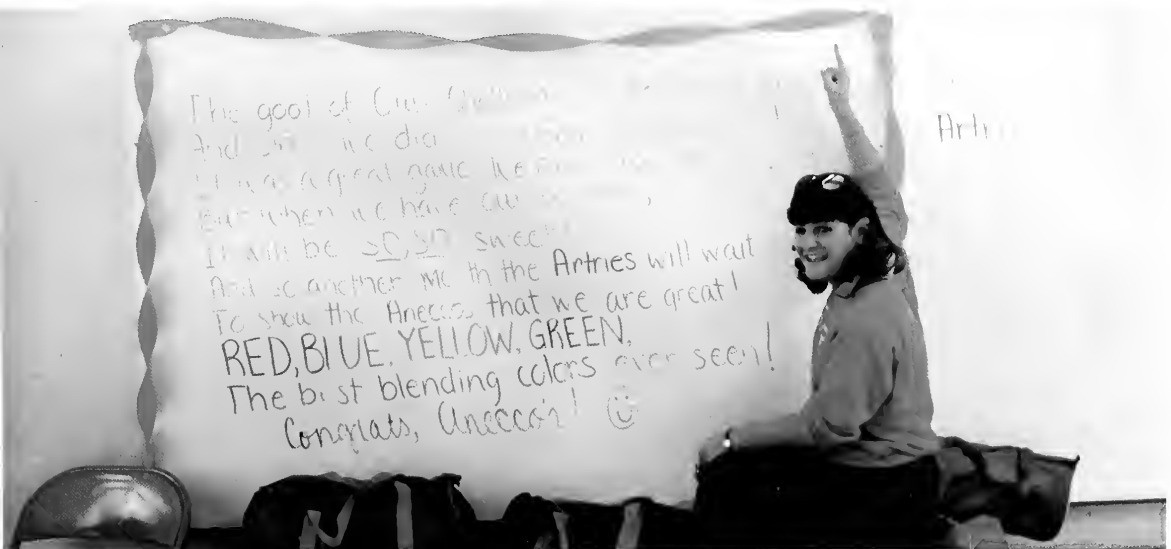

We are Harpeth Hall;

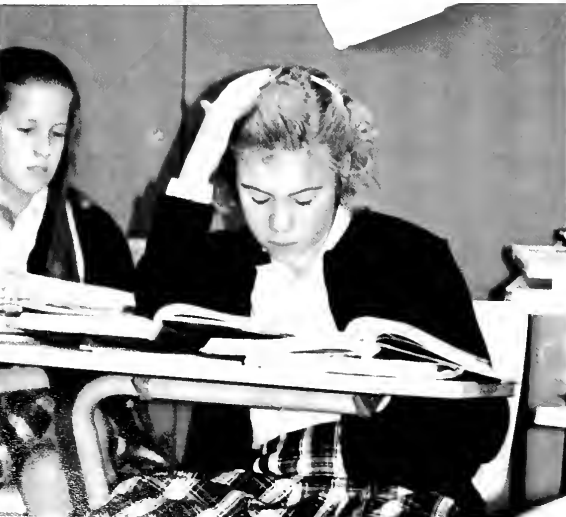

in spirit and pride we stand:

reaching, striving, growing.

to better ourselves.

We are true to our motto:

Through the struggles,

through the triumphs.

the pride we feel

for Harpeth Hall

is displayed by the spirit

we express for our school.

Faculty and Staff

David E. Wood: Headmaster

Striving to continue the academic excellence at Harpeth Hall is just one of Mr. David Wood's goals for the school. He also endeavors to develop new courses and opportunities for the benefit of the students. In addition, he seeks to increase the endowment of Harpeth Hall to aid in reducing the large tuition while increasing the salary of the faculty.

Although Mr. Wood's main responsibilities involve the overall operation of the school and the hiring of new faculty, he also participates in various aspects of school life. For example, Mr. Wood cheers the Honeybears to victory at athletic events. He has taken part in the summer musicals, My Fair Lady and The Music Man, and he even judges the costume contest at the biology department's "Frog Day" in November. Mr. Wood participates whole-heartedly in all aspects of school life, and he takes a special interest in each girl at Harpeth Hall. He shows his interest through personalized notes to girls who make the Honor Roll or to those participating in plays and by being available throughout the day for students seeking advice or a friendly person to talk with.

Following his graduation from Davidson College in North Carolina, Mr. Wood taught at Battle Ground Academy. After a long period as Director of Admissions at Vanderbilt, he became headmaster at U.M.S., a boys' preparatory school in Mobile, Alabama. Mr. Wood has since made a very successful transition from the all-male school, U.M.S., to Harpeth Hall.

Joanna Rutter: Director of the Upper School

As Director of the Upper School, Mrs. Joanna Rutter is a very important figure to the students at Harpeth Hall. She is an advisor, a disciplinarian, and a friend to many. She also serves as hostess at the annual wine and cheese parties, and she plays an important part in formulating school policy. Mrs. Rutter, however, is most often a disciplinarian, and she regrets that more students do not know her personally. She realizes the importance of her disciplinary role to the school, and she feels that self-discipline coupled with proper priorities and well-made decisions can help students achieve their goals here at Harpeth Hall and throughout their lives. Mrs. Rutter herself has had to make decisions and set priorities when, at the age of thirty-two, she returned to college after having seen her four children enter school. After receiving her bachelor's and master's degrees, she accepted a position at the Charlotte Latin School where she served for nine rewarding years. She then found herself faced with another opportunity and challenge last year when she accepted the position of Director of the Upper School at Harpeth Hall. She is pleased with the changes that have taken place during two years here. These changes include the recent curriculum changes and the new unstructured study hall that allows students with acceptable grades to use their free time as they wish. Mrs. Rutter has proven herself to be supportive of the faculty and has tried to encourage students to achieve their potential in a demanding but supportive atmosphere.

Polly Fessey: Middle School Director

For the past sixteen years Miss Polly Fessey has directed the Middle School with devotion, enthusiasm, and an instinctive sense of responsibility. Not only does Miss Fessey maintain her demanding job as Director of the Middle School, but she is also involved in extracurricular activities. In past years Miss Fessey has served as treasurer and secretary of the Mid-South Association of Independent Schools who awarded her an Honor Citation. She participates in the Cumberland Valley Girl Scouts program and various church committees. For years students and faculty have turned to her for advice.

Miss Fessey's career at Harpeth Hall has never lacked new learning experiences. In 1980 Miss Fessey served as Harpeth

Hall's first Interim Headmistress for the Upper School. Miss Fessey commented that, "This gave me a greater understanding of how everything works at Harpeth Hall. There was more detailed information to understand in the Upper School." Along with her efficient manner and responsibility, Miss Fessey has always exuded warmth, understanding and an air of charm with whomever she associates.

In addition to these qualities and responsibilities, Miss Fessey's biggest job is to help the students be motivated and enjoy school. Miss Fessey feels that, "The girls are different than they were sixteen years ago. They're more knowledgeable about things because they have greater exposure to television and news."

Mrs. Lucile McLean Retires

Mrs. Lucile McLean's vital contributions to Harpeth Hall have been many. Mrs. McLean has been working adeptly with Harpeth Hall's finances for many years. Often, she works throughout the summer, taking only a short two to three week vacation. With accurate records of each student's individual finances, Mrs. McLean deals with all the incoming and outgoing money at Harpeth Hall. She handles all types of bills, ranging from tuition checks to book money, and organizes the book sale in the Fall during registration. Mrs. McLean has always enjoyed her work very much, especially because of the wide variety of personalities of all the different students at Harpeth Hall.

Harpeth Hall attributes years of financial security to Mrs. McLean's intelligent organization. The entire school will feel a deep loss with her retirement and will greatly miss her unique personality. Harpeth Hall wishes her future success and continued happiness for years to come.

Mrs. McLean leaves after many years of devoted service

Anita Schmid and Jane Berry

The Counseling Department is directed by two Harpeth Hall alumnae. Mrs. Anita Schmid, class of 1968, serves as freshman-sophomore counselor, while Miss Jane Berry, class of 1972, guides juniors and seniors in selecting colleges.

Mrs. Schmid advises freshmen and sophomores and directs Winterim. Operating the Winterim program involves organizing an on-campus curriculum and a travel or work/study option. A University of Tennessee graduate with a master's degree in human development counseling from Peabody College, Mrs. Schmid approaches her responsibilities enthusiastically.

As College Counselor and Dean of Students, Miss Berry is an asset to Harpeth Hall. Miss Berry directs a system efficient in insuring the punctuality of college applications. Her extracurricular involvement includes the college tour, Student Council, and junior class sponsor. With bachelor's and master's degrees from Vanderbilt and experience teaching history, Miss Berry is well-prepared for her duties.

Peggy Herring

Miss Herring, the business manager of Harpeth Hall, is responsible for creating the school budget each year and handling the insurance programs for the school. She plans ahead every year for major purchases and needs of the school, such as the addition of eight new Apple II computers for the Upper School and the new audio system which was made possible through various contributions by different school organizations. One major expense of the Harpeth Hall year is the upkeep of the campus, for which Miss Herring also is responsible. Aware of the wide range of rules and regulations that exist, she makes sure that the school complies with them. This year she has transferred all school records onto computer disks. Miss Herring is dedicated to her work at Harpeth Hall and admits that she enjoys seeing how the girls and the school change from year to year.

Polly Nichols

Mrs. Polly Nichols has contributed to Ward-Belmont as well as Harpeth Hall School in many different ways. She is a graduate of Ward-Belmont, and she later served as the Director of Alumnae Affairs here at Harpeth Hall. This year Mrs. Nichols took on a new role, that of head of the Development Campaign. This position is indeed vital to the existence of Harpeth Hall because the school cannot survive without financial aid from outside sources. Mrs. Nichols' job requires actively pursuing donations from public and private contributors who are interested in Harpeth Hall. In seeking these donations Mrs. Nichols often travels throughout the region promoting the benefits and basis of a Harpeth Hall education. Mrs. Nichols' work in establishing these successful contacts and raising needed funds shows her loyalty and devotion to Harpeth Hall and ensures the continuation of the fine college preparatory education which the school offers. Mrs. Nichols is definitely an asset to Harpeth Hall, and her hard work and support is greatly appreciated.

Susie Brown

Susie Brown does a variety of jobs for the Harpeth Hall community and is an important figure here. As director of the admissions process, she organizes group tours for girls from the feeder schools in the Nashville area, and she arranges interviews and tours for all prospective students and their parents. She also administers the entrance exam in January and helps select the new students, which keeps her in contact with all the students at one time or another.

In her job as Alumnae Director, Mrs. Brown keeps Harpeth Hall alumnae aware of the school's and each other's activities. She collects information and news about each class every year and publishes both a newspaper and a magazine. She also works with the development office on fund-raising projects involving the alumnae, such as the Phone-a-thon.

Mrs. Brown, a graduate and a former English teacher here at Harpeth Hall, received her B.A. degree from Sweet Briar College and her M.A.T. and M.A. in English from Vanderbilt University.

Organizations

Student Council

The Student council aims for greater school spirit and increased student participation in school activities. The 1983-84 council, under the direction of Student Body President Holly Conner and the supervision of Miss Jane Berry, sponsored many events, including the Fall Dance, the Halloween Party, and the Valentine's Day Dance. Two other council events were the "Personality of the Month" and "Teacher of the Month" awards which were presented to the student and teacher who displayed the qualities of an enthusiastic participator at Harpeth Hall. During the summer the council welcomed all the new students by giving a small party designed to familiarize them with Harpeth Hall. Throughout the year, the Student Council entertained and informed the student body with assembly programs and skits. In January, the sophomore representatives became the leaders of the Winterim Student Council and organized activities for the students participating in classes on campus. The Student Council also sponsored and participated in Career Week held during the last week of Winterim. A driving force in the Upper School, the Student Council encourages students to enjoy and take advantage of school activities.

Lil Bradford, Miss Berry, Holly Connor, Mary Irwin.

Honor Council

The purpose of the Honor Council is to uphold the Honor System by encouraging the spirit of honor as well as acting upon cases of Honor Code violations. The elected representatives from each class in the Upper School make recommendations to the Faculty Disciplinary Board. To insure that all cases are handled fairly, all matters and meetings of the Honor Council are kept confidential.

President Lizzie Buchanan and the Council members with the support of their sponsor, Mrs. Rutter, upheld the integrity and the high respect for honor that Harpeth Hall embodies.

Seated: Mrs. Rutter, Lil Bradford, Liz Buchanan, Mary Irwin. Standing: Regina Allen, Wende Hall, Sarah Chang, Ruthie Fredriksen, Donna Phinizy, Tracy Orcutt, Chandler Coker, Yolanda Ferragina, Rachel Landon, Beth Miller.

Middle School Council

As head of the student body, the Middle School Student Council organized many activities throughout the year. These included the Talent Show and the Grandmothers' Tea. The Council also punished minor offenses and operated the Lost and Found. A new tradition adopted by the group involved surprising each student with a cake on her birthday. Sponsored by Mrs. Sally Mabry, the Council worked to unite the girls and provided them with a chance to participate in student government.

Mu Alpha Theta

Mu Alpha Theta is an organization which honors students gifted in mathematics. The role of the Harpeth Hall chapter is to recognize girls who have maintained a B average or better for three years of math, thus new members are initiated in the spring of their junior or senior year. The society encourages its members to compete in the State Mathematics Convention and to enter monthly math contests and other invitational contests across the city, state, and region. The members of Mu Alpha Theta are strengthening their knowledge of math and learning new skills through participation in challenging competitions.

Betsy Hilton, Mary Brugh Chaffin, Christina Wong, Mrs. Andrews.

Cum Laude

The Cum Laude Society of Harpeth Hall honors academic excellence by recognizing the top ten percent of the junior class, the top twenty percent of the senior class, and faculty members who have been at Harpeth Hall for at least two years and belong to the collegiate honor society Phi Beta Kappa or another Cum Laude society. This year the Cum Laude society asked Miss Patty Chadwell to speak at its induction day assembly. Miss Chadwell commented on the growth and advances Harpeth Hall has made from its Ward-Belmont days to the present by describing many memorable moments and experiences during her years at Harpeth Hall in the physical education department. The Harpeth Hall Cum Laude Society not only stresses the importance of maintaining a standard of excellence, but also encourages the students' pursuits of knowledge.

Quill and Scroll

Quill and Scroll is a national honor society which recognizes high school juniors and seniors who have demonstrated excellence, enthusiasm, and outstanding potential in high school journalism. At Harpeth Hall, students must be either an editor or rising editor of a publication to be eligible for membership. In addition, members must rank academically in the upper third of their class. Students who have contributed significantly to a school publication but are not initiated into the honor society can receive a special award for their work on one of the school publications. The presentation of the awards and the initiation into the Harpeth Hall chapter takes place in the spring during All Club Picnic. The Quill and Scroll chapter at Harpeth Hall was established in 1982 thanks to the efforts of Mrs. Libby Evans.

Société Honoraire de Français

The Société Honoraire de Français recognizes those students who have excelled in French at Harpeth Hall. This organization is a national high school honor society sponsored by Mrs. Libby Evans. The Harpeth Hall chapter of the society was granted a charter by the American Association of Teachers of French in 1982. The society honors high school students who have maintained an A- average for at least two years of French. Each of the girls displays a strong interest and an academic excellence in the language.

The MILESTONES staff, with the help of their new sponsor Mrs. Turnbull, strives not only to cover the major events such as plays and dances, but also to display a part of Harpeth Hall that many people outside cannot see: the general everyday spirit of the school. Each member of MILESTONES works under the supervision of the four editors in order to learn the specific responsibilities and expectations for the particular aspects of the yearbook, which range from writing copy to cropping pictures. Together, with enthusiasm and cooperation, the MILESTONES staff works diligently to provide the school with a candid view of what Harpeth Hall is all about.

Penstaff

Penstaff is the Harpeth Hall literary society whose members enjoy expressing their creativity through original literary works. Under the leadership of chairmen Kim Bueno and Callie Johnson and sponsor Mrs. Sarah Stamps, Penstaff worked to fulfill their two main goals: first to maintain a literary influence within the school, and second to produce the annual literary magazine, HALLMARKS. In February, Penstaff asked Dr. Herschel Gower, a prominent literary figure in Nashville, to read selections from his novel FACES IN A NASHVILLE ARCADE to the student body and to discuss his personal dedication to literature. Penstaff held its annual banquet in honor of the new members in late March.

Under the direction of sponsors Dr. Betty Marney and Dr. Dona Gower and Editor-in-Chief Cathy Callaway, LOGOS II captured the events and the essence of Harpeth Hall. The writing and the photography staffs, those who must have contributed to at least three of the six issues, and the members who worked occasionally wrote articles concerning academics, athletics, school events and the arts and discussed more important issues to keep students abreast of the changing world. Along with covering these issues, Winterim, Student Council activities, and other events, LOGOS II provided interested students with an opportunity to gain journalistic experience.

Key Club

The Key Club is an organization which provides students with opportunities to help people in the Nashville community through service projects. Activities began with the traditional used book sale whose profit was divided between three charities and the Student Council. In the fall several members went to Donner-Belmont Day Care Center where they held a Halloween party for the children. At Christmas George Armistead, a Kiwanis member, dressed as Santa Claus and joined the Key Club members in bringing a spark of Christmas joy to the patients at General Hospital. Whether the Key Club is selling concessions at NO, NO, NANETTE, going to lunch with their parent club, Kiwanis, or delivering notes for the office, this organization and its members focus on helping other people.

Debate Club

Resulting from fresh interest, Harpeth Hall resumed its discontinued debate program. Coached by Mr. Gordon Turnbull, the Debate Club competed in area tournaments to present resolutions for the national debate topic, "Uniformity in the United States Criminal Procedure." The debaters argued both negative and affirmative cases, taking various approaches to deliberating for and against the STATUS QUO of criminal justice. After fulfilling the participation requirements of debate, the club also became a member of both the National Forensic League and the Tennessee High School Speech and Drama League.

Harpeth Hall Playmakers

Playmakers is the drama club at Harpeth Hall which consists of girls who support and participate in various productions and theater-related activities. In September the Men's Club presented THE MUSIC MAN, a play composed of students, faculty, and parents. NO, NO, NANETTE was presented in Davis Auditorium November 18-20. Playmakers also presented a drama in the spring. Drama club members participated in projects throughout the school year. Many girls saw LITTLE FOXES at the Tennessee Performing Arts Center and THE MIRACLE WORKER at the Children's Theater.

Mrs. Davis, Elizabeth Stein, Scott Leathers, Marian Hollyday, Susan Deckner.

Art Club

The purpose of the Art Club is to provide an opportunity for those interested in art to explore further art-related activities and projects. Sponsored by Mrs. Sharon Charney and Mr. Peter Goodwin, the Art Club spent another fascinating year browsing in local art galleries, such as Cheekwood, and attending the art openings in Harpeth Hall's Marnie Sheridan Art Gallery. Innovative experiments pursued by the organization included redesigning the mural outside of the Upper School art room and planning "sketching trips" throughout the city to give its members a chance to draw live settings of scenic Nashville.

Mrs. Charney, Dolly Kavass, Cindy Crist, Mr. Goodwin. Not pictured Bunny Stein.

French Club

The purpose of French Club at Harpeth Hall is to make learning French more enjoyable by promoting culturally related events. In the 1983-1984 school year the French Club truly met this goal. Under the direction of Mrs. Libby Evans, the club sponsored a Duds Day. Florence Savage, this year's A.F.S. student who is from France, gave president Kathryn Schnelle much help in decorating a French café for A.F.S. Celebrations. In addition, the French Club, along with the Spanish Club and JCL, sponsored International Language Week in the spring.

Kathryn Schnelle, Erin Handte, Mrs. Evans, Sheila Morris, Florence Savage.

Junior Classical League

Among many things, the Junior Classical League spent the year promoting the study of Latin and learning about the history, culture, and mythology of the ancient Romans and Greeks. Members participated in Vanderbilt Latin Day, attended the State Convention in Kingsport and went to the National Convention in New York. As in past years, the entire club took part in the National Latin Exam and scored well. The JCL boasted award-winning CERTAMEN or Latin quiz-bowl teams in both upper and middle divisions. Apart from its academic concerns, the organization also held two banquets to increase club spirit.

American Field Service

The American Field Service organizes two fund raisers during the school year to help provide money to bring a foreign student to Nashville. The Celebrations festival, which takes place in the fall, is the larger of the two events. Classrooms are decorated with posters and filled with food from different countries. The Dessert Fest occurs in the spring and is much like Celebrations except the main focus is on desserts. With the combination of these two fund raisers, A.F.S. helps provide the opportunity of study in Nashville to a foreign student.

Spanish Club

The Spanish Club is a language club for those who are AFICIONADAS of Mexican culture, food and fun. Besides planning and funding a special summer trip to Venezuela, the club members enjoyed their annual piñata bust and Spanish dinner. They also sponsored the Venezuela room for A.F.S. Celebrations this year and became familiar with Venezuelan food and folklore. At Christmas the members learned Spanish Christmas carols and customs. Throughout the year they enjoyed studying the culture of the Spanish neighbors that are very much a part of our own heritage.

Mrs. Couch, Tiffany Hitt, Leslie Tarkington, Argie Oman.

Outing Club

The Harpeth Hall Outing Club allows a student to participate in outdoor activities and just to enjoy the outdoors. This year the club sponsored a rafting trip down the Nantahala River and a ski trip to Paoli Peaks in Indiana. The club also plans to canoe down the Hiwassee River in the springtime. This year the Outing Club started a conservation project which began with members writing letters to various environmental agencies around the country in an effort to research ways in which the club and the student body could raise money to help protect wildlife. The Outing Club adds a special touch of excitement to both its members and to the Harpeth Hall community.

Rachel Landon, Erin Handte, Mrs. Norris, Kathie Jones.

Athletic Association

The Athletic Association is comprised of girls who have received fifty athletic points by participating in various varsity or intramural events. The Association at Harpeth Hall strives to maintain and increase school spirit as well as to recognize and reward individual and team achievements. Each year the Association holds an assembly to acknowledge those girls who held starting positions or participated in a varsity sport by giving them a Harpeth Hall letter. During the year this group supported athletics and intramurals by selling items, including Harpeth Hall sleeveless sweatshirts, shorts, and concessions during home games.

Sports

Cross Country

Diligence, fortitude, and talent enabled the Harpeth Hall Cross Country teams to complete successful seasons this year. Running four to seven miles a day to and from Percy Warner Park regardless of weather conditions soon became routine to these dedicated athletes. The girls' rigorous training proved to be a primary factor in the accomplishments of the season. The exemplary leadership of Tracy Orcutt, Jennifer Cox, and Amanda McPherson pulled the team together for the wins at the dual meets as well as the disappointing losses. The superior coaching abilities of Mrs. Susan Russ, an essential constituent of the team's victories, has succeeded in rebuilding this year's young team. The Middle School Cross Country team had a successful season this year. They fared well in their competitions.

Cross Country

Volleyball

As the most successful team since 1977, this year's varsity volleyball team accumulated an impressive 24-7 record and captured four very prestigious titles.

In the annual AAA Tournament, hosted this year by GPS in Chattanooga, the Honeybears tied for first place. As defending champions in the Father Ryan Classic, the Honeybears captured their second championship title as they defeated Ryan, Greenbriar, FRA, and Hillwood in a very hard-fought tournament. Kim Bueno and Lil Bradford were named to the All-Tournament Team.

In District competition, Harpeth Hall rallied to finish as District Runner-up. Betsy Hilton, Kristin Breuss, and Kim Bueno received All-District honors.

The Honeybears then advanced to the Regionals and rallied once more to reach the finals against Glencliff and ended a very illustrious season as Regional Runner-up. Kim Bueno received All-Regional honors.

Seniors Lil Bradford and Kim Bueno were honored as members of the All-Nashville first team pick and Betsy Hilton received second team honors.

The freshman team also had a very successful season, finishing as the number one team in their district.

The Middle School team finished fourth in the H.V.A.C.

Soccer

The Upper School varsity soccer team finished an exciting season. Daily practices and scrimmages, held under the direction of head coach Mrs. Dugan Davis, developed and sharpened the girls' soccer skills. Mrs. Mary Armstrong helped the team with constructive criticism that led to an exciting 4-0 win over Girl's Preparatory School of Chattanooga and a fourth place finish in the girl's high school league tournament.

The Middle School soccer team also enjoyed a successful season. With assistance from Mrs. Joyce Lee, Mrs. Davis coached the girls through a winning season. The team finished third in the HVAC tournament with a 1-0 win over archrival Ensworth. Mrs. Davis looks forward to the participation of the eighth graders on future varsity soccer teams.

Basketball

After starting the season with a record of two wins and nine losses, the Varsity Basketball team fought to win the next twelve out of twenty-one games, finishing the season with fifteen wins and eighteen losses. Under the leadership of coach Tom Young and seniors Anne Bond and Rae Mifflin, the Harpeth Hall team highlighted their season by going to the regional tournaments for the first time in the school's history. In addition, Sarah Sitton was named to the All-District team.

The freshman team had a successful year with a record of seven and ten. Although several players suffered injuries, the girls, led by coach Mike Goodwin, proved to have great potential for future varsity teams, and Lezley Dale made All-District.

Miss Nan Reed coached the Harpeth Hall Middle School team to a winning year as they tied for third in the season and placed fourth in the HVAC tournament. Mrs. Nancy Duvier and Mr. Lee Smith coached the sixth grade basketball team to another successful year which culminated in a third place trophy in the Oak Hill Invitational.

Tennis

The 1984 tennis team, coached by Mrs. Pat Moran, had a competitive season. The team took a first place in Harpeth Hall's Patty Chadwell Invitational and second place in the prestigious Rotary Tournament in Chattanooga. In addition, the team captured first place in the District tournament, a win which qualified Harpeth Hall for the Regionals. In an exciting season's end Elizabeth Arnold took an impressive second place in the State Tournament, and she and Diana Cherry combined efforts to achieve an outstanding first place finish in the doubles. Overall, Harpeth Hall placed second in the State Tournament.

The Middle School tennis team had an extremely prosperous season. Miss Kerry Sullivan coached the team which was managed by Ware Petznick. They suffered few defeats and upheld Harpeth Hall's fine tennis tradition.

Track

Coached by Susan Russ and Mark Webb, Harpeth Hall's 1983-1984 Upper School Track team had a successful season. The team of twenty-three girls was a young one, with a majority of freshmen and no seniors. The track team placed high in its meets taking second at the McCallie Invitational in Chattanooga, second in the Clarksville Rotary Relays, and fifth in the Optimist Relays in which Harpeth Hall had the highest finish for Double and Single A Classifications. In addition, the team placed second in Region II AA-A and first in the Brentwood Triangle Relays. For the first time Harpeth Hall sent four relay teams to the state meet. Freshman Beth Berry qualified in four events, and junior Tracy Orcutt qualified in the mile. The team completed its season with a seventh place finish in the state.

The Middle School Track team, led by Dugan Davis, consisted of twenty girls. Even though the year was a rebuilding one, the girls, with Annis Marney at the helm, were competitive in the H.V.A.C.

Softball

The Middle School softball teams played competitively this year. The team opened their exciting season with two easy victories over Harpeth Academy (28-3) and Oak Hill (10-2). The skillful coaching of Mrs. Nelson certainly helped the team progress. The sixth grade team consists of: Mollie Anderson, Booth Andrews, Alyson Beauchamp, Susie Creagh, Leslie Shea Duling, Abby Eaden, Mandy Emerson, Laura Gaw, Rebecca Greene, Laura Jack, Francis Jackson, Connie Smith, Diana Starrton, Ginny Thompson, and Kate Wilk. The seventh and eighth grade team also displayed a great deal of talent during the 1984 softball season. The combination of team cooperation and Mrs. Burr led the team to a 15-3 victory over B.G.A. for the season's opener. Team members included: Marla Connelly, Kelley Schmitt, Erin Moroney, Christy Jackson, Julie Hartog, Sharon Coker, Marice Carol, Jennifer Rose, Becky Bond, Katie McDougall, and Bambi Bingam. Both the sixth and seventh grade teams displayed the athletic talent of the Honeycubs.

First row: Mary Donna Wimberly, Mandy Emerson, Connie Smith, Booth Andrews, Allyson Beauchamp. Second row: Amy Nichols, Laura Gaw, Kate, Wilk, Ginny Thompson. Third row: Diana Stanton, Susie Creagh, Laura Jack, Rebecca Greene, Abby Eaden. Fourth row: Laura Allen, Leslie Shea Duling, Frances Jackson, Brent Sharp. Fifth row: Julie Doochin, Mrs. Gaw, Molly Anderson, Mrs. Nelson.

Leadership Conference

During the weekend of August 26, 27, and 28 students and faculty gathered for the fourth Annual Leadership Conference at Brandon Springs Camp, Land Between the Lakes, Kentucky. Directed by Mrs. Anita Schmid, Mrs. Ginger Justus, Mrs. Joan Warterfield, Mrs. Sanda Davis, and Mrs. Emily Fuller, the 1983-84 school leaders learned to be more efficient and took time to plan for the coming year.

The Conference focused on projects that would encourage group cooperation and on various activities to allow students to meet and get to know other people. There were helpful discussions on practical ways to deal with problems that could come up during the year. In addition, general conversations were held on how to become more able leaders and how students who hold more than one office can operate effectively.

For new officers there was a quick lesson in the basic Parliamentary Procedures for conducting meetings. To prevent repetition for those who had attended previous conferences, the old officers had "refresher courses" on the attitudes of the leader, the group, and group members and on how officers can improve the weaknesses in their clubs and classes.

Harpeth Hall Playmakers Present THE MUSIC MAN

For the second year Harpeth Hall presented a play starring parents, faculty, and students. The school performed Meredith Wilson's The Music Man on September eighth through eleventh to raise money for the activities of the Men's Club. The cast included Dick Good as Professor Harold Hill, Sarah Nichols as Marian Paroo, Sherman Newcomb as Marcellus, Don Fisher as Mayor Shinn, and Anne Tonelson as Eulalie Shinn. The students involved included Lynn Newcomb as Zaneeta Shinn, Michael Starr as Tommy Djilas, Tiffy Baker as Amaryllis, and Matt Warren as Winthrop Paroo. The show was directed by Joe Giles, with choreography by Lee Ann Anderson.

The Music Man story revolves around Professor Harold Hill, a travelling salesman who, claiming to form a boys' band, tries to swindle money out of the River City townspeople. Meanwhile, Marian, the town's librarian, gathers evidence against Harold and his alma mater. The two gradually fall in love with a little help from Mrs. Paroo, Marian's mother, played by Libby Hagewood.

The Music Man was a spectacular amateur performance. The School Board Barbershop Quartet, David Wood, Gordon Turnbull, Jim Warren, and Bill Lauderdale, harmonized on old familiar tunes, and the scenes in which the chorus danced highlighted the production.

AAA Conference

Every year Harpeth Hall participates in the AAA (Academics, Athletics, and Activities) Conference with three other girls' schools from the South: Julius T. Wright from Mobile, Alabama, Hutchison School from Memphis, Tennessee, and Girls' Preparatory School in Chattanooga, Tennessee. This year the conference was held in Chattanooga, Tennessee. Girls belonging to the Honor Council, Student Council, publications, and volleyball team attended and stayed with G.P.S. girls in their homes. The girls attended morning classes and chapel at G.P.S. During lunch they were treated to entrees such as stuffed crab and chef salad, something the girls missed at Harpeth Hall, and met with the other schools to share ideas in special interest areas.

In volleyball the Honeybears beat Hutchison and Wright but lost a close game to G.P.S. which was played in front of G.P.S.'s entire student body. Amid the mass, however, a small group of Harpeth Hall girls cheered the Honeybears on. The volleyball team tied for first with G.P.S. and Wright, while Hutchison placed second. On the way home the girls went on a tour of the University of the South at Sewanee.

Upon their return to Nashville, the girls were glad to be back and felt both grateful and lucky to attend Harpeth Hall.

Fall Combo

The Harpeth Hall 1983 Fall Dance proved to be a huge success. Sponsored by the Student Council, the dance took place in Bullard Gym from 8:00 to 12:00 p.m. on Saturday, November 5. Decorations of purple and silver balloons and an entrance tunnel added to the excitement of the night. The walls of the Cubby Hole were covered with posters and album covers of various rock groups to provide a colorful backdrop, enhancing the theme "Girls Rock Your Boys," which was chosen unanimously by all four classes. "Nobody's Business" played and everyone rocked to popular songs that were familiar to all. The Student Council provided cold soft drinks and delicious food for all students, parents, and faculty members who were brave enough to tolerate the loud music. When the band stopped playing and the lights came on, most of the girls had rocked their boys into a fun, exciting, Saturday night.

Club Challenges

The 1983-1984 school year was the third year that Harpeth Hall featured two combined clubs from the original four. Each girl still becomes a member of one of the four clubs her freshman year, but the clubs compete in pairs. In addition to inciting enthusiasm, the joining of the clubs is popular and brings the students close together.

The main purpose of the challenges is to increase spirit and involvement in the school, to promote sportsmanship, and to increase participation in both athletic and non-athletic events. The first challenge this year was the Big Wheel Relay. Due to unforeseen circumstances that challenge was a tie. Later in the year the An-Eccos challenged the Ar-Tris to a game of battleball, and the An-Eccos were triumphant by a close margin. Despite Dr. Betty Marney's awesome intelligence in the Club Bowl, the Ar-Tris won. The Clubs and the challenges are a popular tradition that will be continued in the future years.

Wild West Day

On April 26, the Student Council pleasantly surprised both students and faculty as they presented "Wild West Day." After a picnic lunch the four classes and the faculty participated in many fun-filled activities, including a wheelbarrow race, a team food-eating race, and a "Pin the Cast on J.R." contest. Students and faculty cheered on their respective teams. The teachers ended up as the final victors and won a free Duds Day. Later in the afternoon, the Student Council put on a skit, "Who creamed J.R." It turned out that Miss Jane Berry committed the "creamier crime."

"Wild West Day" proved to be a great success and adventure outside of class. It was undoubtedly better than the political assembly that was previously scheduled for the time.

Senior Recognition Day

Senior Recognition Day marked the beginning of the long road to graduation for the class of 1984. On this day the class formally accepted the responsibilities of leadership for the school.

In a special assembly senior class president Tish Tully announced the senior class motto, "Reach for the spirit within you", and the class colors, peach and blue. Mr. Wood accepted both on behalf of Harpeth Hall. Each senior received her own beanie and took her position as a full member of the class of 1984. The assembly concluded with the singing of the alma mater, and throughout that week the seniors displayed their class spirit by wearing their colors. Senior Recognition Week was special for the class of 1984 in that they enthusiastically accepted new responsibilities of leadership.

Seniors get beaned by class officers.

Junior-Senior Day

Junior-Senior Day was the last chance that the juniors had to annoy the seniors before graduation. As a disguise for their pranks, the juniors dressed up as little boys and the seniors dressed up as little girls. The annual event took place on May 18 and featured games for the two classes planned by Lil Bradford. The games were held during lunch and included an egg toss and "Red Rover." The senior class bought submarine sandwiches for lunch for both classes. While the seniors were peacefully enjoying their lunches, they were surprised by the juniors with an attack of water balloons. The seniors retaliated in what turned out to be a water balloon war. Junior-Senior Day prepared both classes for the upcoming graduation ceremony.

Fall Assemblies

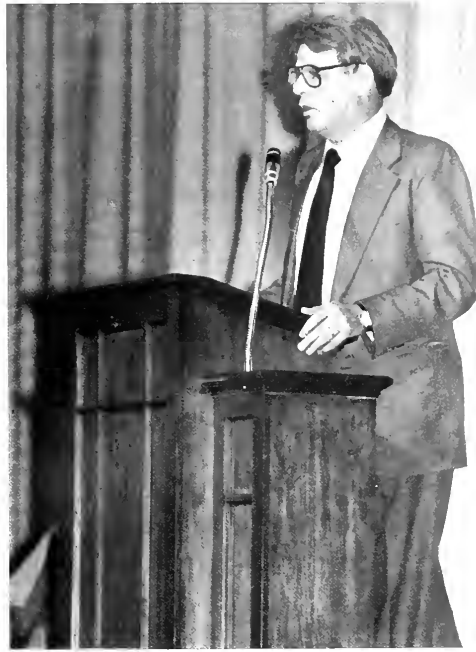

From the Senior Capping ceremony honoring the class of 1984 to the Smurf Big Wheel race between the Ar-Tri and the An-Ecco clubs, the assemblies act as an important part of each day. The joint Choral Assembly presented by both Middle and Upper School students as well as Mr. Irvin Limor's discussion about his metallic sculptures added a cultural dimension to the fall assemblies. Dr. Green and Dr. McNab informed students of the hazardous results of anorexia nervosa and smoking. Also this fall, Cindy Smith, a sports writer for the NASHVILLE BANNER, told of the experiences and challenges of her career. Other assembly programs included Mr. Igor Kavass' talk about his recent trip to Russia and the Key Club's District Governor, Patrick Garrett, who spoke about reaching to achieve our goals. Finally, some assemblies were for entertainment, such as the Student Council play and the teaser for the fall musical, NO, NO, NANETTE. Thus, the fall assemblies, whether educational or purely entertaining, serve as an enlightening part of each school day.

Mr. Irvin Limor explains the motivation for his artwork.

Grandmothers' Tea

On Monday, November 21, is the Marnie Sheridan Art Gallery, the Middle School Council, headed by President Ramie Smith and Vice-President Annie B. Williams, sponsored the annual Grandmothers' Tea. Girls in the sixth, seventh, and eighth grades were asked to invite their grandmothers or a close friend for an afternoon of tea and desserts. The tables were brightly decorated with candles and flowers. During the course of the afternoon, the seventh grade sang for the gathering, making this year's tea a truly special occasion. Approximately four hundred people attended the yearly event, and both the grandmothers and the girls felt that the tea made for an enjoyable afternoon.

That's Entertainment!

That's Entertainment was an alternative to the annual talent show which usually takes place during Composition Red and Green. The sophomore class sponsored the event which was a combination of short acts. These acts consisted of singing, dancing, and comedy routines. The entertainers performed while the audience enjoyed a variety of desserts served by waiters and waitresses from the sophomore classes of Harpeth Hall and M.B.A. Julie Perkins and Rob Ikard, masters of ceremonies, introduced each act with the help of a chorus of Harpeth Hall students and provided humor between acts. That's Entertainment proved to be a welcome addition to the joint school activities.

A.F.S. Celebrations

The many hours of hard work that American Field Service president Mary McLaughlin and other A.F.S. members put in during the 1983-1984 year resulted in their annual Celebrations of Many Lands, held on Thursday, October 27. This exotic event was not only directed towards eating and having a great time, it also concentrated on learning about different cultures through displays, costumes, food, and decorations typical of different nations. The countries represented included France, Germany, Italy, Mexico, Tunisia, England, Soviet Georgia, the Fiji Islands, and many more.

The purpose of A.F.S. is to allow students to experience various foreign cultures through Celebrations and the sponsoring of foreign exchange students. Harpeth Hall is very fortunate to have the A.F.S. program and the opportunity to sponsor Florence Savage from France for the 1983-1984 school year.

NO, NO, NANETTE

On November 18, 19, and 20 Davis Auditorium was filled with flappers as the Harpeth Hall Playmakers produced NO, NO, NANETTE under the leadership of Mrs. Sandra Davis, Mrs. Ray Berry, and Mr. Scott Leathers. The musical begins with three floozies, Cathy Phister, Rebecca Fogg, and Dillie Sloan, visiting their "Uncle" Jimmy Smith, played by Timothy Don. Afraid his wife Sue, played by Julie Hays, will get the wrong idea, Jimmy has his lawyer Billy Early, played by David Wood, pay off the floozies. The plot complicates when Lynn Newcomb as Lucille Early, Dara Russell as Nanette, Rob Summer as Nanette's boyfriends Tom, and Sue arrive at Chickadee cottage to find Jimmy, Billy, and the three floozies. The conflicts are resolved and NO, NO, NANETTE concludes with a colorful finale bringing the gaiety and merriment of the roaring twenties to Harpeth Hall.

Winterim

During January Winterim provided students with unique learning opportunities. Travel options and work-study programs were available to juniors and seniors while freshmen and sophomores participated in an on-campus curriculum. This year trips to Great Britain, France, the Bahamas, and New York were enormous successes. Upperclassmen found working in hospitals, the Governor's office, and area schools challenging and rewarding. On-campus courses ranged from "Bridge" to classes devoted to sharpening academic skills.

Interim provided the Middle School with a week of new learning situations. Popular courses such as "Junior Curators at the Cumberland Museum" and "Careers" presented the girls with exciting and meaningful experiences. Both Winterim and Interim developed new interests and broadened the students' views.

Middle School Presents CINDERELLA

The Middle School presented CINDERELLA Friday, March 2 and Saturday, March 3 in Davis Auditorium. The main characters were Cinderella, played by Paige Ferragina, the fairy godmother, played by Robyn Growden, and the prince, played by Edith Trost. Among the other characters were Julie McGuigan as the stepmother, Patricia Ptomey and Katie Hardin as the stepsisters, Beth Blaufuss as the king, and Abigail Goldberg as the queen. One of the largest groups ever in a middle school play completed the cast. The production was directed by Mrs. Sandra Davis and Mrs. Ray Berry.

The play followed the traditional fairy tale story of Cinderella, while incorporating the music and lyrics of Rogers and Hammerstein. The impressive sets and backdrop were constructed by Middle School students and together with creative costumes, they added to the authenticity of the production.

The perfect couple is united in matrimony.

George Washington

On February 21, Harpeth Hall carried on the tradition of celebrating George Washington's birthday. The seventh grade, under the direction of Mrs. Merrie Clark, performed marching drills, nautical dances, and the minuet in honor of our first president. The students perfected their performance in practices held during Interim and February. The sailors' energetic horn pipe dance was supervised by Ms. Leslie Matthews, while the soliders learned their complicated drills from Mrs. Susan Russ. Mrs. Ray Berry led the group in several songs about Washington's military victories. President and Lady Washington, two eighth graders elected by the seventh grade, were portrayed by Annis Marney and Annie B. Williams. As in previous years, the program was enjoyed by parents, faculty, and students.

Student Council Presents Hawaiian Holiday

The second Annual Hawaiian Holiday Dance on March 31 triggered many Spring Break memories. The Student Council transformed the entrance to Bullard Gym into a native hut complete with grass fans and straw mats and distributed free leis to complement the mood. Hawaiian-clad girls, guys, and faculty danced to the tunes of "The Keys" for nearly four hours. The backdrop enhanced the Hawaiian motif with its scenes of a tropical sunset over a rolling wave, a treasure chest, and palm trees loaded with coconuts. The night was festive, colorful, loud, and Hawaiian. In two years this early spring dance has become a Harpeth Hall tradition.

Spring Assemblies

The variety of topics covered in the Spring Assemblies provided Harpeth Hall with a break from the daily academic rigors. The Student Council sponsored the annual Career Week with a host of speakers who discussed their careers and gave advice on possible career choices. The subjects of the assemblies ranged from a program concerning refugees to one encouraging the use of seat belts. Miss Patty Chadwell addressed the audience as guest speaker for the Cum Laude program, while on another occasion a group of concerned students presented a skit promoting school spirit and pride. A unique treat for the entire student body was the performance by the Fisk Jubilee Singers of an inspiring collection of songs during a special assembly. In late March and early April elections for Student Council president required the candidates to deliver campaign speeches to the student body prior to the voting. The cast of YOU CAN'T TAKE IT WITH YOU presented a teaser assembly, and Mrs. Ginger Justus, dressed as an Indian, served as auctioneer for the Annual Senior Lunch Auction. During National Foreign Language Week A.F.S. student Florence Savage shared her American experiences with the student body.

YOU CAN'T TAKE IT WITH YOU

On April 13, 14, and 15, the Harpeth Hall Playmakers performed Hart and Kaufman's YOU CAN'T TAKE IT WITH YOU. The plot of the comedy revolves around the story of Alice, played by Dillie Sloan, and Tony, MBA's Scott O'Neal, who fall in love and consequently become engaged. Alice realizes that her bizarre family will not be tolerated by Tony's rich, traditional parents. Alice's family may be lacking in talent, but they excel in determination whether it be in writing war stories, in making fireworks, or in simply trying to avoid the Internal Revenue Service. More importantly, they enjoy life. The elderly Mr. Vanderhoff, played by David Wood, Jr., explains the importance of having an occupation you enjoy and benefitting from life as much as possible.

Directed by Mrs. Sandra Davis, the cast of nineteen included seniors Julie Hays and Elliott Sloan as Mr. and Mrs. Sycamore, Rob Summer and Susan Deckner as the aristocratic Mr. and Mrs. Kirby, Risa Klein as Rheba, the maid, Jimmy Moore as Mr. Depinna, and Lynn Newcomb as the Grand Duchess Olga Katrina. The production was amusing, but more important, it reinforced the necessity of living one's life to its fullest.

Tony calms his bewildered parents.

A.F.S. Dessert Fest

On April 16 Harpeth Hall kicked off its annual Foreign Language Week with a Dessert Fest which featured caloric specialties from many lands. The countries displaying their traditional foods included France, the United States, Hungary, Germany, and Greece, filling the Marnie Sheridan Art Gallery with delectable treats. Following this fun and fattening experience, the French film, THE BRIDE WORE BLACK, was shown and was fortunately equipped with subtitles for those who were a bit rusty on their French. Both events were enjoyed by students, faculty, parents, and friends. The Dessert Fest and Celebrations of Many Lands are the two major fund-raisers for the American Field Service at Harpeth Hall.

Eighth Grade Combo

On Saturday, March 24, the Eighth Grade transformed the cafeteria into a starry night as they held the annual Eighth Grade Combo. From 7:30 to 11:30 the girls danced with their dates to the music of "Nobody's Business." Blinking white lights became stars on the ceiling, and balloons and streamers adorned the walls to convey the theme, "All Night Long." The couples had their picture taken in front of a backdrop decorated with a large silver moon. Students were not the only ones enjoying themselves—Dr. Betty Marney and her husband were spotted dancing among the throng.

Prom

On May 19 Harpeth Hall's McMurray Center was filled with the music of "Black Widow" and the beauty of balloons, long dresses, and tuxedos as the Junior Class presented the Junior-Senior Prom in honor of the graduating Seniors. The theme, Mardi Gras, enabled the Juniors to make fun and festive decorations for the big spring dance. Presentation, when the Prom Queen and her Court, the seniors, and the junior officers were presented with their dates in front of an anticipating crowd, was the highlight of the evening. This year, the Prom Queen was Amanda Oldham, and her court included senior Kate Zeitler, junior Jennifer Cox, sophomore Ashley Hitt, and freshman Ellen Helm. After the dance, the juniors invited the seniors to an early morning breakfast to conclude the festivities. The juniors' hard work gave the seniors a memorable prom.

The theme of the 1984 Prom added to the pleasure of the evening.

Dance Concert

On May 11, 12, and 13, the Harpeth Hall Dance Clubs presented their annual Dance Concert. This year's show was dedicated to Miss Polly Fessey in appreciation of her many contributions to Harpeth Hall. Mrs. Stephanie Hamilton and guest dancer, Larry A. Lee, got the show off on a lively foot in their tap number, "Feets Too Big." Next was the jazz club's spirited "Hooked on Swing." "Leyenda" was the dramatic ballet performance in which Beth McPherson portrayed an innocent girl's betrothal, seduction, dream, wedding, and suicide. The Modern Dance Club presented an entertaining and creative leap in "Auld Lang Syne." The Club's second piece, "Light: Reflection, Refraction, and Human Reaction," was powerful. The dancers in "Reflection" resembled moving sculpture, and the dancers in "Refraction" appeared as bursts of colored energy. "Steppin' to the Bad Side" by the Jazz Club was a snazzy, exciting piece. "Broadway—on Tap—" provided an excellent finale. Under the direction and hard work of Ms. Leslie Matthews and Mrs. Hamilton, this year's Dance Concert once again demonstrated a tremendous display of dedication, innovative ability, and creative talent.

Father Daughter Banquet

The fourth annual Father Daughter Banquet was held on May 17 at 6:00 in the Opryland Hotel's Jackson Room. Students in grades six through twelve and girls who will be at Harpeth Hall next fall attended with their fathers, friends, and relatives.

After all the participants had eaten an enjoyable dinner, the chorus, under the direction of Mrs. Ray Berry and accompanied by Mrs. Marion Ross, sang "Once in a Lifetime" and a medley of songs from the musical A CHORUS LINE. The speaker for the evening was Ms. Victoria Jackson, president of Diesel Sales and Service and community leader, who talked about the qualities needed for success.

The evening was organized by the Harpeth Hall Men's Club, an organization which gives financial aid to special school projects. The Men's Club did an outstanding job of providing a night of food, fun, and entertainment for all who attended.

National Merit

The National Merit Corporation was founded in 1955 to honor outstanding high school students in all fifty states and to focus a public spotlight on the academically bright student. There are generally fifteen thousand semi-finalists who represent the top half of one percent of the nation's graduating seniors according to PSAT scores. National Merit Commendees must have scored in the top five percent. This year Harpeth Hall had four National Merit Commendees; Susan Deckner was named a Semi-Finalist; and the Finalists included Lizzie Buchanan, Elizabeth Stein, and Hannah Thompson.

Christina Wong, Betsy Hilton, Julie Hays, Mary McLaughlin.

All Club Picnic

All Club Picnic, held on May 24, was a fun afternoon of awards and songs, and a sad afternoon since the seniors would be graduating soon. The ceremonies began with several art awards given by Mrs. Sharon Charney and Mr. Peter Goodwin, followed by Ms. Leslie Matthews' presentation of the Honor Dancer Award to Kathryn Schnelle. Risa Klein, Scottie Hill, Shan Overton, and Monica Haley received the class spirit awards. Risa Klein was also honored with the Ar-Tri Club Spirit Award, and Amanda Oldham received the An-Ecco Spirit Award. The two clubs presented their songs, and the Ar-Tris won the competition. Callie Johnson read the HALLMARKS dedication to Mrs. Martha Georgy, and Jeannie Joe read the MILESTONES dedication to Mrs. Libby Evans. Next A.F.S. student Florence Savage said her final farewell to the student body and was followed by the swearing in of the new Student Council officers. After Mr. Wood recognized the Lady of the Hall, Lil Bradford, and her Court, the festivities concluded with the singing of the Alma Mater and tearful good-byes to the graduating seniors.

Florence's Farewell.

Middle School Honor Day

Harpeth Hall recognized the Eighth Grade Class of 1984 for their outstanding achievements on June first during Middle School Honor Day. Miss Abbay Eaden gave the invocation, and the seventh grade chorus followed with songs directed by Mrs. Douglas Berry. Dr. K.C. Ptomey, Jr., Pastor of Westminster Presbyterian Church, delivered an inspiring address to the class of 1984. Miss Polly Fessey, director of the Middle School, awarded the girls who showed excellence in specific fields. Annis Marney received the Daugh W. Smith Award and the Eighth Grade Class Spirit Award, while Sarah Morris was given the Polly Fessey Award. Susie Creagh and Jenny Walker received the Sixth and Seventh Grade Class Spirit Awards, and Ariston won the Athletic Cup, Club Challenge Bowl, and Club Citizenship Award. Mrs. David Ward assisted in the presentation of the certificates. This lovely ceremony was concluded with the Alma Mater and a choral benediction.

Dr. Ptomey encourages the Eighth Grade to dream.

Senior Banquet

Decorated with peach and blue streamers and balloons, the tented patio of Julie Hays' home looked elegant for the Senior Banquet. The graduating seniors and the faculty enjoyed a gourmet meal and interesting entertainment. Senior Class president Tish Tully presented gifts to the class sponsors, Mrs. Pat Moran and Dr. Betty Marney, and to Mr. and Mrs. Spencer Hays for their generosity. Three "Wise Men," Kim Bueno, Holly Conner, and Risa Klein, shed light on the futures of the graduates in a humorous way. The "wise men" also read some of the seniors' Last Wills and Testaments. Afterwards, Tish Tully and Lil Bradford presented a poem about bad days at college. Finally, Tish Tully closed the evening with a poem about friendship and a few reflections on her year as the Senior Class President. The evening was filled with good food, memories, laughter, pictures, and promises for future reunions.

Eat, drink, and be merry, for Monday we graduate!

Step Singing

Following the presentation of the Lady of the Hall and her Court on Sunday, June 3, the Junior-Senior Step Singing ceremony began on the front lawn of Souby Hall. Parents, friends, and relatives gathered for this traditional event honoring the Class of 1984. After the processional of the classes, the Junior Class officers came forward and laid forth the Daisy Chain which is a tribute to the Senior Class. The Class of 1984 then sang "Along the Road," written by Dan Fogelberg. Tish Tully, Senior Class president, presented Mr. Wood with the class gift, a donation to the Campaign Fund for the building of a new math-science wing. Tish transferred the Senior Diary to Lindy Rogers, president for the Class of 1985. The Junior Class recited the Senior Pledge and sang Michael W. Smith's "Friends," and the afternoon program concluded with the Harpeth Hall Alma Mater.

Lady of the Hall

This year's Lady of the Hall, Lil Bradford, embodied the ideals of Harpeth Hall throughout her high school years. Due to her qualities of leadership, enthusiasm, support, and involvement, Lil was chosen by her fellow schoolmates as this year's Lady of the Hall. For these same qualities, Lil was recognized with various awards throughout her high school career. These included the Sewance Award, the Optimist Youth Appreciation Award, the Exchange Club Youth of the Month Award, and the D.A.R. Award. She has been active in several sports, namely golf, soccer, and volleyball. She also was a member of various clubs and organizations, ranging from Chorus to A.F.S. Lil served as class president her junior year and student council vice-president her senior year. In addition, she served on the Honor Council and was secretary-treasurer as a senior. Lil was definitely an excellent choice for Lady of the Hall for she not only fulfilled its requirements, she surpassed them.

Katie Wray Award Lizzie Buchanan

Each year at graduation the Katie Wray Award is presented to the senior who has achieved the highest four year grade point average. This year's recipient, Lizzie Buchanan, is truly deserving of this honor. In recognition of her academic excellence she has been inducted into Mu Alpha Theta, the honorary mathematics society, and Cum Laude, a society recognizing outstanding scholarship in secondary schools. She also received the Sophie Dobson academic award, presented at All-Club Picnic. Earlier this year Lizzie was named a National Merit Finalist, one of the highest awards a high school student can receive. She was later awarded a National Merit Scholarship.

Academics is by no means the only area in which Lizzie excels. She is active in her church and has worked part time throughout her high school years. In addition to these activities, she has participated in the Key Club and has represented her class on the Honor Council for three years. Last spring she was elected to serve as president of the Honor Council for 1983-1984.

Lizzie's high school career has been an active and fruitful one, and her future at the University of Virginia appears equally as bright.

Graduation

The Senior Class of 1984 graduated in the presence of family and friends on the beautiful evening of June 4. Following the processional and Mr. David Wood's invocation, the Harpeth Hall Chorus performed two appropriate songs. Senior Kim Bueno presented an interesting speech expressing the graduates' pride in their class and their school. After Kim's speech Dr. James Daughdrill, president of Southwestern at Memphis, gave an inspiring speech urging the graduates to look back at the past, to look at themselves, and to look ahead to the future. Dr. Daughdrill's speech was followed by the conferring of diplomas by Mr. Wood and Mrs. Rutter, and the presentation of awards to several of the graduates. The seniors sang their class song, "Along the Road" by Dan Fogelberg, and the audience joined in for the Alma Mater.

Daughters of Alumnae

For the year 1983-1984 the editors, staff, photographers, and sponsor of MILESTONES 1984 have worked toward the best representation of the book's theme: school pride and spirit. We hope that through the pictures, copy, layouts, and dedication, the main elements of every MILESTONES, we have accomplished this goal. Even our choice of the color for the cover of the book is very important. This year we have chosen grey, an official school color and one of the colors of the 1983 Junior Prom, an event that unified the class of 1984. All of these ingredients are necessary for the publication of MILESTONES, and we hope that this yearbook is as special to the Harpeth Hall community as it is to everyone involved in its production.

The editors and sponsor of MILESTONES 1984 would like to thank Mr. Togue Uchida for enormous help with pictures, Mrs. T.G. Pennington for color photos, Mr. Hap Minhinnet for school dance pictures, Mrs. Libby Evans for being the silent guide, Mr. Gordon Turnbull for helping out in several jams, and Mr. Bill Benson of Herff-Jones. MILESTONES 1984 is a publication of Harpeth Hall School, Nashville, Tennessee, printed by Herff-Jones Yearbooks.

Year at a Glance

Aug.	28	Leadership Conference at Brandon Springs with the buffalo, as usual.
Sept.	6	School starts. Seniors embrace Big Boy and caravan to school in full force.
Sept.	9-11	MUSIC MAN: "With a capital 'T' that rhymes with 'P' that stands for 'pool' . . ."
Sept.	30	A.A.A. Conference: H.H. Honeybears meet G.P.S. Bruisers in scenic Chattanooga.
Oct.	6	Senior Recognition Day: Seniors beaned.
Oct.	11	MILESTONES Picture Day: Mrs. Turnbull displays hidden cheerleading talents.
Oct.	29	A.F.S.: Remember the Fiji room? Bananas and what?
Nov.	5	Fall Combo: Girls rocked their boys.
Nov.	19	NO, NO, NANETTE: They were happy to make you happy, too.
Dec. Jan.	9- 27	Exams and Winterim provide both an unpleasant and a pleasant break from classes. When school resumes, Seniors fall into the biggest Senior Slide in history.
Feb.	14	Valentine's Day: Zorro leaves his mark.
Feb.	19	Hawaiian Holiday: What a punch!
April	12	Science Fair: Yes, we have no letters.
April	22	YOU CAN'T TAKE IT WITH YOU: (but trying is surely fun!)
May	11	Dance Concert: Color and movement on the stage.
May	19	Prom: Are you still missing kissing?
June	4	Graduation: The Final Hour
